

[00] Introduction

Michael the archangel.

Who is like unto God?, the highest messenger of the Father? Does it matter or is it insignificant? What does the Bible teach on this?

Who is this glorious personage that appears in the Old Testament in the prophecy of Daniel, and in the New Testament, in the Revelation of Jesus Christ?

What is Michael's part in the plan of Redemption?

What does Michael have to do with the people of God?

What will happen when Michael stands up [Daniel 12:1 KJB] and what does it mean to us, and to the world?

This present study will identify, according to the scripture, the King James Bible, the answers to these questions. Take up God's word, with serious and constant prayer, with confession and repenting of error and sin, earnestly studying, not resisting the Holy Spirit, but believing God, who will reward abundantly, and set one free with and in the Truth.

For those who are not familiar with Bible study, you will not want to skip any sections, or jump ahead, but will need to read from this section onward, in chronological order.

For those who are more familiar with Bible study may skip a section or two as desired, but please take the time to go back through each section skipped until completion of the whole.

For those who already have a position on the subject, I would ask that you suspend that position and/or apriori, and consider the subject afresh and anew, as if you had never studied it before.

There may be questions that some have, that will be answered herein.

There may be questions that some have that are not answered herein, but that would not be because for lack of effort, or research, or an attempt to brush any concern aside, but simply due to the element of frail, feeble and fickle man, namely myself.

I have tried to approach this subject from all points of scripture and also to answer the questions and/or objections that may come after such a study.

If a question or objection is not herein fully represented [though I believe the heart of all objections are answered herein], please let me know, and I will be glad to consider it in the light of all scripture, and may even add it in any future revisions of this study.

Before coming to the final conclusion, know, that it is written:

Proverbs 18:13 KJB - He that answereth a matter before he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him.

2 Timothy 2:15 KJB - Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.
